

U.S. Agricultural Trade

In 2009, falling grain & oilseed volume and prices account for 70% of the $17-billion export loss. Animal products & cotton exports also fall, but modest increase expected for horticultural products. Import growth slows due to lower prices & weaker demand

Trade Value ($Billion)

